

CONSTITUTION

International Federation of Muaythai Amateur (IFMA)

Preamble

Muaythai develops the continuous improvement of physical and mental faculties in the athletes practicing the sport. To compete in Muaythai requires regular and comprehensive training. The purpose of this sport is that those participating in it endeavor to score victory by means of technical skills and not to win the contest by bringing about an early stoppage. Muaythai may be practiced as a competitive sport by male and female athletes. Competition shall be limited to participation between males and males, and females and females. IFMA recognizes Muaythai as part of the cultural heritage of Thailand.

Article I Title and Introduction

A. Title

The title of the Federation shall be the “International Federation of Muaythai Amateur” abbreviated as IFMA.

B. Emblem

The emblem is a Muaythai boxer in the position of “Wai Kru” over the full name of the Federation and the abbreviation IFMA.

C. Affiliation

1. IFMA is a non-profit making international organization comprising the National Muaythai Associations of all countries which have a national governing body controlling Muaythai and which having agreed to abide by the Articles herein contained, have become affiliated members. Its Principal office shall be situated in Thailand.
2. Only one association shall represent a country in Muaythai. If two or more associations within the country claim representative status, such status will be awarded to the association which is recognized by that country’s highest government sport organization as representing only Muaythai. If there is no such recognition such status will be awarded to the association which is recognized by IFMA as the National Muaythai Association.
3. An association affiliated to IFMA may not be affiliated with any other organization not recognized by IFMA.
4. Affiliation will not be granted to any association which purports to represent both Muaythai, and Kickboxing or any other sport.

D. Official Languages

The official languages of the IFMA are Thai and English. All official documents of the IFMA must be published in the English language. Congresses, meetings and sessions must be held in the English language. The IFMA may direct that other languages be used as a means for communication where appropriate.

Article II Objectives

The Objectives of the International Muaythai Federation shall be:

1. To promote cordial and friendly relations between its members and to supervise Muaythai activities throughout the world.
2. To frame the regulations under which international championships and competitions shall be organized.
3. To organize, in collaboration with National Associations, the IFMA events and Muaythai competitions for international events. The right to organize the World Championships and international events will only be granted to countries which are able to grant entry into their territory of participants of member countries wishing to participate.
4. To ensure that all international competitions open to the affiliated Associations shall be organized and held under the Rules of IFMA.
5. To ensure that no discrimination is allowed against any country or person on grounds of race, religion, or political affiliation.
6. To promote mutual respect among affiliated National Associations in their relations and the reciprocal recognition of penalties and suspensions.
7. To ensure that the income and property of the IFMA shall be applied toward the promotion of the objectives of the Federation.
8. To encourage and improve the proficiency of the Muaythai technical groups and officials.
9. To support and maintain the ideals and objectives of the Olympic Movement.

Article III The Congress

A. Authority

The IFMA shall be governed by the Congress thereof.

B. Quorum

A Quorum at Congress shall consist of not less than 50% plus one of the affiliated National Associations of IFMA.

C. Notice of Appointment

Notice of appointment of delegates shall be handed, prior to the commencement of the Congress, to the Commission of Scrutineers for the assessment of mandates and such notifications must be signed by the President and General Secretary of the affiliated National Associations.

D. Representation

The Congress shall consist of IFMA's President, General Secretary, Vice Presidents and other Executive Committee members, and the delegates of the affiliated National Associations. Each affiliated National Association may be represented by not more than three delegates but shall be entitled to only one vote at Congress. Every delegate shall be a member of and authorized by the Association that he represents. A member shall not be less than 21 years of age and shall not represent any other affiliated National Association. A member of the Executive Committee shall not be entitled to a separate at Congress in their capacity as such member.

E. Commission of Scrutineers

On questions of voting and elections, the Congress will appoint a Commission of Scrutineers consisting of the Head of IFMA office and four other delegates. Candidates for election can not sit on this Commission. The Commission of Scrutineers informs the Congress of members good standing and entitlement to vote.

F. Adoption of new Articles and Rules

Articles and Rules adopted at the Congress shall come to effect on January 1st immediately following the Congress and can not be changed for a four year period or until the next Congress whichever first occurs.

1. Ordinary Congress

a. Time:

A meeting of the Ordinary Congress of IFMA shall be held every four years, the first to be held in the second half of 2007.

b. Venue:

Nations desiring to host a Congress will submit a proposal two years before the next Congress. The Executive Committee will decide the venue and date not less than one year prior to the next Congress, and then shall notify the affiliated National Associations.

c. Notices of Motion and Nominations of Office Bearers:

Notices of motion and nominations of officers for election to the Executive Committee shall be sent by any reliable means so as to be received by the IFMA office not later than four (4) months before the date of the Congress. Notices of motion shall be considered by the Executive Committee who will only include them in the Agenda if it considers them sufficiently important for discussion. In the event of the death or withdrawal before Congress of a member nominated for election, his or her National Association shall be entitled to substitute the name of another member of its Association.

2. Extraordinary Congress

- a. In addition to the Ordinary Congress, an Extraordinary Congress may be called by the Executive Committee or if 20% of the affiliated National Associations representing at least one Association from each continent shall present a demand to the IFMA office by registered post or courier. In the latter case such demand shall state the reason for the convening of such Extraordinary Congress and specify the proposed Agenda of such Extraordinary Congress and the proposed Notices of Motion. When the General Secretary receives such demand, he shall call an Extraordinary Congress within a period not exceeding four months from the date of receipt of such demand and all affiliated National Associations shall be immediately notified. The venue and the actual date shall be fixed by the Executive Committee.
- b. No business other than that mentioned in the demand and/or authorized by the Executive Committee may be included in the agenda.
- c. The General Secretary shall send notification of matters on the Agenda to affiliated National Associations three months before the date of Congress.

Article IV Executive Committee

A. Authority

During the period between Congresses, the highest executive body of the IFMA shall be the Executive Committee, the rights and duties of which are set out in this Article. In the intervals between Congresses, the Executive Committee and its Vice Presidents Bureau shall transact the business of the IFMA. It shall render reports to each Congress and shall carry out the decisions made by each Congress and the duties laid down by the Articles and Rules of IFMA. During the period between the meetings of the Executive Committee, the Vice Presidents Bureau shall act as necessary at its bi-annual meeting. It shall report its actions to the Executive Committee who may confirm or modify the action.

In between meetings of the IFMA Executive Committee or Vice Presidents Bureau, the President shall act for IFMA as necessary. If the action specifically involves a Continent or one of the IFMA Commissions, the President shall consult beforehand the President of such Continent or the Chairman of the Commission concerned about the action to be taken. If not practical to give advance notice, he must inform the Continent or Commission concerned as soon as practical. Actions other than normal routine will be reported to the Executive Committee for approval.

B. Composition

The Executive Committee shall consist of the President, Ten (10) Vice Presidents, the General Secretary, Treasurer, eighteen (18) members, who shall be elected as representatives of the different Continents, as set out below and three (3) additional members. Each member of the Executive Committee shall belong to a different National Association, except only that the President, the General Secretary, Treasurer, and additional members may belong to an Association which may also have a Vice President on the Executive Committee, provided that in no case shall it ever be possible for any one Association to have more than four (4) members on the Executive Committee. Each National Association shall have only one vote on the Executive Committee of IFMA.

C. Duties of the Executive Committee

1. To observe the Articles and Rules. To make decisions in case of emergency and where necessary to put such decisions into effect, such decisions and actions to be reported to the next Congress for approval.
2. To decide upon the affiliation to the IFMA of any unaffiliated Association.
3. To decide any dispute that may have arisen between affiliated National Associations if called upon to do so. In case any affiliated National Association does not agree with the decision or recommendation of the IFMA Executive Committee the dispute shall be considered at the next Congress.
4. To consider any matter referred to it by Congress of the IFMA or by any Bureau of the Executive Committee.
5. To give a ruling on any matter pertaining to the rules of the IFMA that may be referred to it by any Association or Bureau, such ruling to be acted upon until the next Congress and subsequently, unless rejected by Congress.
6. To put motions before the Congress of IFMA at any time if the Executive Committee thinks it desirable to do so.
7. To issue the minutes of meetings of the Executive Committee as soon as convenient, and to forward copies to affiliated National Associations.
8. To arrange the organization of all matters concerning World Championships and Challenge matches, and to control through its Continental Bureau other international championships. Additionally, to appoint at least one technical delegate to supervise the technical arrangements for the abovementioned championships.

9. To maintain a list of recognized Referees and Judges who are qualified to officiate at the World Championships, and other international competitions.
10. To select a Jury for the World Championships, Challenge matches and other international competitions.
11. At its first meeting after each Ordinary Congress, to appoint members to the Standing Commissions who shall remain in office until the next Ordinary Congress.
12. Work in close contact with those organizations and individuals with whom IFMA has working agreements or contracts.

D. Terms of office

The President, General Secretary, Treasurer and the Executive Committee shall be elected at an Ordinary Congress for a term of four years.

E. Vacancies

If any vacancy arises in the Executive Committee through the death of a member or as a result of a member's resignation, it shall be filled by the Executive Committee. In the event of withdrawal, suspension or expulsion by his affiliated National Association, and/or if a member fails to attend two consecutive meetings of the Executive Committee without any valid reasons as determined by the Executive Committee, the vacancy shall be filled by the Executive Committee from a member belonging to any affiliated National Association in the continent concerned at the discretion of the Executive Committee. Should the vacancy be for the position of President an interim President shall be nominated by vote of the Vice Presidents and shall serve until the next Congress when the Congress will elect the President.

F. Elections

1. Nominations:

The election of the Vice Presidents and members of the Executive Committee representing the affiliated National Associations of AFRICA, AMERICA, ASIA, EUROPE, and OCEANIA shall be from among the candidates nominated by the National Associations of the respective continents. Every candidate for election to the Executive Committee must be a member of one of the affiliated National Associations and except in the case of the President, must be nominated by that Association. An Association may nominate a candidate from any Association within its continent, who must also be nominated by the candidate's Association in order to be eligible. It is permissible to nominate one candidate to several offices in the Executive Committee. In this case, the National Association which makes such nomination shall indicate in its nomination that its candidate, if not elected, e.g., as President, is being nominated for election to the office of, e.g., a Vice President, and if not elected to this office is being nominated for election, e.g., as a member of the Executive Committee. A nominated candidate may not be elected to more than one position.

- Competitions, Tournaments or contests shall not be arranged between the clubs or units of different Associations without the sanction of their respective National Associations.
- B. Who may compete
- Both males and females may compete in international IFMA competitions, or inter-nation Club exchanges. No female may compete or box any male in an IFMA sanctioned competition.
- C. All sanctioned competitions.
- Tournaments or contests sanctioned by IFMA shall be conducted under IFMA rules.

Article XVIII World Championships

- A. Timetable

World Championships on a National entry basis shall be organized by the Executive Committee of IFMA every two years, which is one year before and one year after the Olympic Games.

B. Designation of Host

These Championships shall be allocated, upon applications from the affiliated National Associations, by the Executive Committee of IFMA.

C. World Rights

An affiliated National Association shall not institute or allow to be instituted within its jurisdiction, any other competition which shall have the title of a “World Championship”.

Article XIX World Champion

A. Title of World Champion

The title of “World Champion” or “World Youth Champion” shall be held by the winner in each of the weight categories of the World Championships organized by IFMA.

Article XX IFMA Television and Marketing Rights

A. Supreme Authority

The Television and Marketing rights of all IFMA Championship Events and IFMA Challenge Matches are the property of IFMA.

B. Continental or Regional Championships

The television and marketing rights of Continental or Regional Championships being organized by a Continental Bureau or Regional body on the continent, are the property of the respective Bureau or body.

C. International Tournaments

The television and marketing rights of international tournaments are the property of the organizing National Associations.

D. Negotiating Rights

With regard to television and marketing contracts concluded under Paragraphs A and B, the National Association hosting the event shall be invited to participate in negotiating the contract so as to be able to protect their rights.

Article XXI Rules governing World or Continental Championships

A. Rules of IFMA

World or Continental Championships and other International Championships shall be held only under IFMA Rules.

B. Award Ceremony

At all IFMA Championships, the National or Delegation Flags of the medal winners shall be hoisted. The National Anthem of the winner, in abbreviated version, shall be played.

Article XXII Conditions of International Competitions or Championships promoted by an affiliated Association

A. Sanctions

Contests and Competitions between boxers of different Associations shall be supervised and sanctioned by the National Associations to which the respective boxers belong. An affiliated National Association desiring to organize an International Championships, Tournament or Competition in which boxers from four (4) or more National Associations are invited to compete shall obtain the prior permission of the continental Bureau of the IFMA, and before the commencement of the Tournament, inform the IFMA office and the respective Continental Bureau of the tournament. The Executive Committee may require, as a condition of their sanction, the payment of a fee, the amount to be based on the importance of the event concerned and the probable financial results.

B. IFMA Membership

A boxer shall compete, only in Competitions which are organized by Associations affiliated to IFMA which have been sanctioned by the Executive Committee of IFMA. He shall not be permitted to compete against Nations of which the Governing Bodies controlling Muaythai are not affiliated to IFMA.

C. Competition Regulations

Competitors competing at competition in foreign countries shall observe and be bound by the laws of the Association under whose jurisdiction the competition takes place, provided that the Rules of such Association are not in contradiction to the Rules of the IFMA in essential matters.

D. National Regulations

If in a particular country the law of the country prevents the literal application of any of the Articles or Rules of the IFMA and if it be proved to the satisfaction of the Executive Committee that the Governing body of Muaythai in that country has used every endeavor to have the law annulled or amended, the Executive Committee may, if it thinks fit, relax such Articles or Rules pending the consideration by the next Congress, provided, however, that there shall be no relaxation of Article XVIII in respect to officials and boxers. World or Continental Championships may not be held in such countries unless conducted under IFMA Rules.

E. Guaranteed Visas and Facilities

Any country where the affiliated National Association wishes to organize an International Competition or Championship must be a country which in the normal course grants the necessary visas and facilities for the boxers and officials of the affiliated Associations concerned to attend the Tournament.

F. Technical Delegates

The Executive Committee shall appoint Technical Delegates to International Tournaments and Championships whose tasks have been defined by the Executive Committee. Any Technical Delegate appointed to categorize Referees and Judges at an IFMA or Continental calendar tournament must have passed the IFMA Referee and Judges examination.

G. Tournament Records

An affiliated National Association holding an International Championship or Competition shall report, in writing to the IFMA office, the place and date of the Tournament or Competition, the names of contestants, the results of each contest, including the names and nationalities of Medal winners.

The names and nationalities of all Referees and Judges who participate in the Tournament will be recorded, and the Technical Delegate or Chief judge should advise as to whether their performance was average, below average, or above average.

H. Continental Associations

The above paragraphs shall apply equally to Continental Associations where appropriate.

Article XXIII Financial Arrangement for International Competitions

A. Agreements between National Associations

Financial and other agreements concerning International Contests shall be arranged only with the permission of the National Associations concerned.

B. Responsibility

After an agreement has been concluded between the National Associations concerned, the National Association arranging for the Tournament shall be legally and financially responsible for the observance of the conditions of the contract. In the case of non-observance of a contract, the National Association in default shall be called to account by IFMA through the Executive Committee.

C. World Championships

Financial arrangements for housing, food and transportation may be provided for nominated IFMA officials.

Article XXIV Inter-Nation Tournaments

A. Consent of National Associations

A Competition shall not be considered International without the consent of each country engaged.

B. Agreements

Agreements concerning Inter-Nation Tournaments shall only be made between the Associations of the countries in question.

C. Financial Arrangements

The financial arrangements of International and Inter-Nation Tournaments shall be a matter to be decided between the respective National Associations concerned. Such agreements shall be binding upon the Associations concerned.

In case of default, the IFMA may suspend the defaulting Association until it shall fulfill its contract.

D. Tournament Records and Results

The results of the Tournament, as well as the names and nationalities of the officials who have acted at same, shall be given in writing to the Continental Bureau concerned, who will file the result. The original scoring cards used at such tournaments, or duly certified copies thereof, shall be sent to the Continental Bureau concerned at the same time. Only the results officially acknowledged by the Continental Bureau can be recorded as Inter-Nation Tournaments.

E. National Teams

A team shall not be called by the title of a country unless the Team is comprised of boxers selected by their National Association.

Article XXV  Disciplinary Action

A. Affiliated Association

Any breach of the Articles and Rules by an affiliated National Association shall render the Association committing such breach liable to suspension by the Executive Committee and to be deprived of membership of IFMA at the next Congress if not less than one half of those voting are so in favor.

B. Associations, Boxers and Officials

The Executive Committee shall have power, at any time, to disqualify or suspend for such a period as it thinks appropriate, any Association which conducts itself, or boxer or official who conducts himself, in a manner which is detrimental to IFMA or to Muaythai or brings IFMA or Muaythai into disrepute.

During such period, an Association, boxer or official so disqualified or suspended shall not be eligible to take part in any function, activities of IFMA or any affiliated National Association. If a boxing official, referee, Judge, Doctor or other IFMA official is found guilty of violating the health protection rules, he shall be suspended from any competition for a period of one year. In case of recurrence, suspension for life-time may be enacted.

C. Discipline of Members of IFMA Executives and commission Officers including IFMA National Executives

The IFMA International Executive has the power to discipline members of its International Executive, all members of its Commissions contained in Article VIII hereof and members of the National Executives of its member nations.

- (1) Where the International Executive is advised or considers that a Member has allegedly;
 - (a) breached, failed, refused or neglected to comply with a provision of these Rules, the Regulations or any resolution or determination of the Board or any duly authorized committee or sub committees; or
 - (b) acted in a manner unbecoming of a Member or prejudicial to the purposes and interests of the Federation and/or Muaythai; or
 - (c) brought IFMA, it's regional representative bodies, it's member nations and any Affiliated Clubs into disrepute;

The International Executive may commence or cause to be commenced, disciplinary proceedings against that Member and that Member or members will be subject to, and submits unreservedly to the jurisdiction, disciplinary procedures and penalties and the appeal mechanisms of the IFMA.

- (2) The chair of the IFMA Legal Commission shall appoint a Judiciary Committee (which may contain him or herself), which need not be comprised of Member of the International Executive of IFMA to deal with any disciplinary matter referred to it, including but not limited to matters arising under these Rules. The Judiciary Committee shall be made up of a minimum of three (3) persons, and shall always be an odd number. The Judiciary Committee members shall elect a Chairman from one of its Judiciary Committee members.

- (3) (a) The Judiciary Committee shall have the power to impose an appropriate determination or penalty depending upon the facts of each particular case, which may include:
 - (i) requiring the Member or members to undergo counseling,
 - (ii) cautioning the Member,
 - (iii) reprimanding the Member,

- (iv) imposing conditions, limitations or restrictions on the membership of the Member,
 - (v) require the Member to issue written apology/ies,
 - (vi) imposing a fine to the Member,
 - (vii) suspending the membership of the Member,
 - (viii) canceling the membership of the Member,
 - (ix) other orders or determinations as the Judiciary Committee think appropriate.
- (b) Where a matter has been referred to the Judiciary Committee, the Secretary General must provide the Member with fourteen days written notice prior to any Judiciary Committee hearing setting out particulars of the complaint and provide the Member or members with copies of all relevant documents.
- (c) A Member is only entitled to address in writing the Judiciary Committee unless on request of the Member the Judiciary Committee (in their absolute discretion) agree to the Member having a right of personal appearance. A Member or members will be entitled to be represented by a barrister or solicitor with the leave of the Judiciary Committee, which will only be given in exceptional circumstances and if given, may be given unconditionally or on such other conditions as the Judiciary Committee thinks fit.
- (d) Any Judiciary Committee hearing must follow the rules of natural justice.

D. Doping

1. If in a doping control, a boxer is found guilty of doping, he shall be suspended from any competition pending disciplinary action that is to be taken by the IFMA Legal Commission (at Continental Championships similar action will be taken by the Continental Bureau of IFMA).
2. A boxer testing positive for a banned substance will be suspended in accordance with the IOC's policy unless stated otherwise in these Articles.
3. If in the Investigation into a doping offence, officials are also found guilty, sanctions may include temporary suspension and permanent expulsion.
4. In case of doping being proved, the result of the competition shall be declared invalid. The defeated boxer shall go on to the next round and compete unless medically ineligible.

5. The chairman of the Medical Commission/Medical Jury and the IFMA office shall be informed of the result of the analysis of sample "A" within 24 hours.
6. The testing procedure in case of a positive "A" sample shall be conducted according to the procedure listed in the Medical Handbook.
7. Any boxer testing positive for banned substances or any Association having several boxers test positive more than once may be subject to disciplinary action, or suspension, if deemed appropriate, by the Executive Committee.

Article XXVI Alteration of Articles or Rules

A. Required Majority

Any alteration, addition, or amendment to the Articles or Rules of the Association shall only be made at a Congress and then only if not less than two-thirds of those voting are in favor. If it is necessary to set aside a rule or any part of a rule in these Articles or Rules in order to comply with a mandate from the IOC, the Executive Committee may make such minimal changes as necessary to comply with the said mandates. Such changes will remain in effect until the next Congress.

Article XXVII Advertising

A. Control

IFMA controls advertising which athletes and officials wear at on-site final championship training, in official press interviews and on warm-ups immediately prior to the bout and in the corner. This control is normally delegated to the Continental Bureau concerned for Continental Championships and to the National Associations concerned for their competitions and for other National Team Matches.

B. Procedures

The usual IFMA procedures for advertising around the ring and on the athletes' competitive clothing in actual competition are sometimes superseded by host country's laws involving television exposure and by arena contracts with local sponsors.

It is necessary that these potentially conflicting points of interest be carefully co-ordinate with the host broadcaster and with the host country early in the planning so that IFMA sponsors can obtain full and adequate identification in the best available manner.

C. Advertising Measurements. Advertising shall be allowed on:

- a) the boxer's shorts

- b) the upper part of the boxer's gloves
- c) the sides of the headgear above eye level not exceeding 20 square centimeters and not longer than four centimeters and shall not cover the headgear manufacturers' names

Article XXVIII Withdrawal from Competition

Any Association withdrawing from a competition as a means of protest shall be suspended automatically and becomes ineligible to compete in any Continental or World Championship in any manner whatsoever for a period of one year beginning on the day of such withdrawal. At its discretion, IFMA's Executive Committee may, if it deems it appropriate, extend this suspension for up to two years.

ARTICLE XXIX Court of Arbitration for Sport (CAS)

IFMA submits hereon to the jurisdiction of the International Court of Arbitration for all relevant matters which arise after the date of the inclusion of this clause, subject only to the extinguishment of appeal rights provided for herein.

The Inquiry Committee will consist of 5 or 6 executive members of IFMA which is to include always the General Secretary and one legally trained member (with minimum 10 years standing). The Inquiry Committee will determine the factual basis of any matter brought before it to ensure relevancy and that a prima facie case has been established before such matter is submitted to the jurisdiction of the ICAS proper.

Failure to submit to the Inquiry Committee will, in itself, be a fault in process and protocol and result in the striking out of the matter.
